

b. Major Fairs & Festivals of Rajasthan:

Fair and Festivals in Rajasthan
Fair & Festivals	Main Features
Kolyat fair	This fair organized at Bikaner for 10 days, Devotees take dip in Lake and pray to god in temples
Chandrabhaga Fair	Fair is organized at the bank of chandrabhaga river for three days in the month of November or December at the time of kartik purnima
Pushkar Fair	This fair is organized in the month of November at Pushkar, Ajmer in Brahma temple, Devotees dropped flower (lotus) in to the lakes through their hand and three spots touched by the flower of the lakes. Three spots are Jyeshtha Pushkar, Madhyam Pushkar and Kanishtha Pushkar.
Camel Festival	Department of Tourism of the Rajasthan Government is organized the Camel festival in the month of January every year in Bikaner
Nagaur Fair	Nagaur fair is held in the month of January-February every-year in Nagaur, this fair is trading fair of cattles and camels
Mewar Festival	Mewar festival is celebrated to welcome the advent of spring and coincides with the festival of Gangaur in Udaipur. This is 18 days festival. It is important for the women of the Rajasthan as it is time for them to dress in their best
Kaila Devi fair	Kaila Devi fair is held in March or April in Kaila village at Karauli district and it holds an important place among the celebrated fairs of Rajasthan. The fortnight-long fair is organized on the banks of the river Kalisil in the hills of Trikut about 2 kilometres from Kaila village.
Mahaveerji Fair	The fair is organized at Mahavir Ji in months of between March and April to commemorate Shri Mahavir Swami.
Summer Festival	Summer festival is organized at Mount Abu in June every year for three days and is a celebration of folk and classical music and feast to the tribal life and culture of Rajasthan state
Teej festival	This festival is organized during the monsoons in July and is dedicated to Lord Shiva and Parvati. On the occasion of this festival the married women who pray to god for a happy and long married life
Gogaji Fair	This fair is organized at Gogamedi in Ganganagar district in the month of August in memory of a popular hero of the area and the hero is known as Goga among the Hindus and Jahar Peer among the Muslims
Ramdevra Fair	This fair is held in Ramdevra village at Jaisalmer in the month of August or September. Village has its name after Baba Ramdev that is Tanwar Rajput, who took samadhi in year 1458. A large fair is held which many (lakhs) devotees attend; they come in large groups from various places.
Marwar Festival	This is two days fair and it shows the art and culture of jodhpur. This fair is organized in the month of October at jodhpur.
Dusshera	Dusshera is celebrated in all over the country in different ways and the celebration purpose is the victory of Lord Rama over Ravana.

3. Source: <http://www.rajasthan.gov.in/StateProfile>

View of fair in Rajasthan