

Industries

Community is continuously making efforts to create effective employment system. Community is involved in providing employment to its members in different sectors according to their qualification. Placement cell has been created in order to manage the requirements of human resource in various industries and informing the same to benefit unemployed people. The DEI placement cell, along with Alumni of institution, aims at making available quality placement opportunities for students and at maintaining linkages with Human Resource Departments in the industry and research organizations.